The State of Patent Litigation: A Conversation with the Federal Circuit

Hon. Randall Rader, Chief Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, heads a panel of distinguished jurists, practitioners, and scholars for a stimulating seminar on patent litigation. Visit the Center for IP Research website for more information. Moot Court Room, 10:00-4:30.

Presidential Management Fellowship Workshop

Please join Dean Michael Keller to learn more about the PMF program and application process. The PMF program provides paid, 2-year, post-graduate opportunities in a federal government agency, with full benefits. More than 98% of the fellowships are converted to full-time permanent positions at the end of their term. Past Maurer grads have taken positions with agencies from the Departments of State, Education, and Defense and the Customs and Border Protection. Success in this program is NOT dependent upon grades. 3Ls only. Room 125, noon. Repeats Wednesday at 4:30 in room 120.

International Law Society 1L Rep Election

Room 121, noon.

Feminist Law Forum Take Back the Night Prep

Please join FLF at 5:30 p.m. in lounge area of the basement of the Law School for Take Back the Night (TBTN) prep. There will be poster-making, flyer-hanging, and other tasks related to TBTN. This is a great way for students who can't attend the event on October 4th to get involved. But all students are welcome! Questions? Please email Amanda Stephens (as48@indiana.edu).

Harris Lecture: Prof. Reva Siegel

Reva Siegel, the Nicholas deB. Katzenbach Professor of Law at Yale University, will speak on "The Woman Question: From Suffrage to Abortion and Beyond." She will discuss how the discourse by proponents and opponents of abortion rights in the late 20th century has become a debate about the question of women's roles and helped shape current constitutional law. Prof. Siegel's work focuses on questions of law and inequality and how courts interact with representative government and popular movements in interpreting the Constitution. She is currently writing on the role of social movement conflict in guiding constitutional change. Pizza and drinks. Moot Court Room, noon.

Question-and-answer Session with Prof. Siegel

Law Students for Reproductive Justice, the Feminist Law Forum, and the American Constitution Society are hosting a question-and-answer session with Professor Siegel. Don't miss this amazing opportunity to take part in a discussion with one of our nation's top legal scholars. 1Ls: we know you have class at 3:30. We will pause so you can leave and get to class on time. Room 216, 2:30-3:30.

Sex Ed Trivia Night

Think you know everything about sex? Prove it! Law Students for Reproductive Justice, together with the Feminist Law Forum and American Constitution Society, are hosting a Sex Ed Trivia event from 7-10 p.m. The Dunnkirk. We challenge you to show off what you know about sex and learn a thing or two about what is taught in sex education in U.S. schools. This promises to be a fun and memorable night! Tickets will be available at an advance price of $8 (look for our table in the law school lobby), or at the door for $10.

Announcements

Socctoberfest Is Here!

Welcome to the Tenth Annual JD/LLM Socctoberfest. This year's soccer match will take place on Friday, October 5th at 5:30 p.m. at Karst Farm Park, on the west side of Bloomington. It is a co-ed event that welcomes all ability levels. After the games, which will end at approximately 7:30 p.m., we will have a cookout in the area adjacent to the soccer fields. Participants, fellow students, and family are all welcome to attend.

If you are a JD or LLM student interested in playing, please e-mail Professor Henderson (wihender@indiana.edu) and indicate your ability level based on the following four categories:

- A. I played competitively in college or high school
- B. I know how to play and have some athletic ability
- C. I can still run and kick things
- D. I can kick things

In addition, please note if you have ever played goalie.

For more information, including a map and game format, visit Socctoberfest's website.

Sign up for the Amazing Race Judicata!

On October 7, SBA will host its Second Annual Amazing Race Judicata. The proceeds from this event will help provide local families with Thanksgiving meals. Anyone can participate!

We will have a series of challenge points around IU's campus. All participants will start with a series of clues, and each clue will take you to a challenge point where you will complete a mystery challenge in order to gain permission to move to the next station. This race is entirely on foot so while we encourage you to be creative, please plan on wearing comfortable sneakers and leaving your wheels at home. Last year's competitors finished the race in under an hour, so this is the perfect way to kick off a new week and still have time to study.

You may either sign up as a group of two or three people.

The donation for a two person team is $10.

The donation for a team of 3 people is $15.

There will be prizes for the first and second place teams, and breakfast for all participants. We will be selling tickets for this event in the lobby every day from 12-1. One member of your team may register and pay for the entire team.

Research Opportunity in School of Education

If you are a 2L or 3L interested in being hired to conduct legal research, editing, and bluebooking for a professor in the School of Education, please contact Janet Decker at deckerjr@indiana.edu.

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

The Indiana Law Annotated (ILA) is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Max Exter (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
